

Guidance for Usage

The Pediatric Medications Dose Calculator sheets are resources developed by BC Children's Hospital PICU intended to support medication dosing emergency/critical situations. To use, select the weight closest to the child's actual weight in kilograms (or closest weight estimation i.e. using Broselow). They are for reference purposes only and are not intended to replace guidance from your local health authority or agency.